Scholars Strategy Network 2024 Chapter Leadership Awards

MARCH 5, 2024

Now accepting nominations

I am pleased to announce that the Scholars Strategy Network is now accepting nominations for its second annual Chapter Leadership Awards. There are three awards this year.

These awards celebrate SSN's exceptional chapter leaders—publicly engaged scholars who cultivate opportunities for researchers to inform policy debates and lead these collaborative projects in state and local chapters across the United States.

We encourage SSN members, affiliates, and external partners to nominate an individual or submit a short testimonial. It takes just a few minutes and provides an opportunity to express your appreciation for the chapter leaders who have made a difference in your work as a publicly engaged scholar and advocate for informed policy.
